

The issue of sustainable financing is central to the ability of African governments to deliver on the MDGs for water and sanitation, as well as building the necessary infrastructure for economic development. 7 focus areas have been identified under this theme:

- Creating an enabling policy environment
- Investing in water (resources and services) and sanitation
- Mobilizing funding
- Communication and advocacy
- Governance
- Review, monitoring and reporting
- Capacity building and training

Download Document